

BECOME A VOLUNTEER MENTOR

Help inspire, prepare & empower B.C. youth for lifelong success.

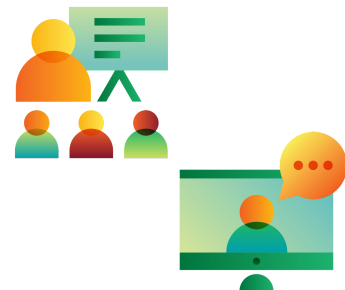

All we need is your interest, life experience and enthusiasm to facilitate life-changing financial literacy, work readiness & entrepreneurship programs to grade 4-12 students.

Why volunteer with JA British Columbia (JABC)?

- Inspire the next generation
- Expand your network
- Give back to the community
- Share your own unique knowledge & perspectives
- Enhance your own coaching and public speaking skills
- Have fun!

Volunteer opportunities are flexible.

- Choose a program based on your area of expertise
- Commit from just 4-8 hours per school year
- Mentor in-class or virtually from your desk
- You can even volunteer with a friend or colleague

JABC provides the training, curriculum, materials, and a classroom ready to meet you!

Jacquie Haycroft

JABC Volunteer - Kelowna B.C.

“
I volunteer because I feel it's so important to give kids a head start on financial knowledge and set them on a track towards making good decisions with their money.

Sakib Haque

JABC Volunteer - Surrey B.C.

I love connecting with the kids and interacting with them. Kids are so smart and they make you break out of the boundaries we have created.

Vivienne Rogers

JABC Volunteer - Prince George B.C.

“
Helping give financial literacy to students gives me great personal satisfaction! I love passing on my banking and financing experience to our youth!

JABC needs volunteers who:

- Have business knowledge and experience
- Have a good command of the English language
- Feel comfortable presenting information and ideas to a class of students
- Enjoy working with and mentoring young people
- Are patient, flexible, organized and engaging
